

Guide Update 23-11: Adverse Action Letters

Effective: 07/13/23

Summary of Changes

HIGHLIGHTS

Effective as of July 13, 2023, you must issue the Borrower an adverse action letter when:

- Fannie Mae declines a Pre-Review transaction; and
- the Borrower does not accept your alternative quote or similar credit option.

Primary Changes

Updated Part I, Chapter 2: Mortgage Loan, Section 203: Pre-Review Mortgage Loans requiring you to issue the Borrower an adverse action letter within 30 days if

- Fannie Mae declines a Pre-Review transaction, and
- the Borrower does not accept your alternative quote or similar credit option.

Additionally, you must upload into DUS Gateway:

- a copy of the adverse action letter and evidence you issued it to the Borrower (e.g., email, certified mail receipt, courier receipt, etc.); or
- your statement that you did not issue an adverse action letter because the Borrower accepted your alternative quote or similar credit option.
